Qualified Medical Examiner and Acupuncturist Joins Healthpointe in Los Angeles

Healthpointe is now offering Acupuncture in its Los Angeles Clinic, led by Dr. Ted Priebe.

La Mirada, CA (PRWEB) August 27, 2015

Healthpointe is proud to welcome Dr. Ted Priebe, O.M.D., CEO of the National Accreditation Agency, into its La Tijera Clinic in Los Angeles. Licensed to practice Chinese Needle Therapy since 1983, Dr. Priebe specializes in the study and treatment of pain with an emphasis on neuromuscular injuries and diseases. Dr. Priebe also practices in Healthpointe's La Mirada clinic and Garden Grove clinic.

Acupuncture is a minimally invasive, non-surgical technique that remains as a prominent staple in therapeutic treatment. Led by Dr. Ted Priebe, Healthpointe's trained and licensed acupuncturists treat patients by inserting needles into specific area of the body. With proper needle placement, practitioners are able to modify and stimulate the nerves while increasing blood flow in the process. By doing this, they will be able to control pain and promote healing and functioning for the patient. Acupuncture is not only used to reduce pain, swelling and inflammation, but it also serves as a proper pain management alternative. Chinese Needle Therapy can also avert the risk of invasive procedures and surgeries.

Dr. Ted Priebe first received his Doctorate of Oriental Medicine at the California Acupuncture College in Los Angeles, California in 1984. He also became certified as a Qualified Medical Evaluator (QME) in 1991 at the Emperor's College of Traditional Medicine. He is the first licensed designated acupuncturist to become a QME in Southern California. In 2006, Dr. Priebe received another Doctorate in Oriental Medicine at the School of Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine in Anaheim, California. Dr. Priebe is also a
